

ENTREPRENEUR'S RESOURCE GUIDE 3.0

Ever wish you could steal the Rolodexes of Arizona's top businesspeople in the know? Find a way to tap into the C-title buddy system? Don't bother. (Stealing is wrong. And besides we've had enough corporate scandal lately, thank you very much.) We've got it all right here in The Entrepreneur's Resource Guide, version three. It's updated and fully loaded with new contacts.

Whether you are starting a new business or in the thick of corporate life, you'll find help in the areas you need. Business planners. Consultants. Strategic advisors. It's all here. Just like the guides in issues past, but better.

Grab a highlighter. Rev up your PDA. It's time to get connected with the best resources in Arizona (and out of state, too) in order to help grow your entrepreneur self.

Visit bizAZ.com for the online version.

Things are looking up for Arizona. We've recovered from the dot-com era and now real e-business is helping companies operate smarter and more efficiently. And, it looks like the life-sciences and biotech sectors are going to lead our state to a new, knowledge-based economy.

If you think we forgot to list someone, put someone in the wrong category, or would like to offer deletions, suggestions or comments about this guide, email: azguide@hotventures.com.

Rick Gibson, managing director of Tucson-based HOTventures LLC (hotventures.com), a "mentor capital fund" for Arizona and California and Rob Moss of Business Development Partnership (bdpalliance.com) created the Entrepreneur's Resource Guide expressly for bizAZ.
